over an unpaid board bill, etc. Rose, a carpenter, accompanied by a laborer after noon, and that the fiend that had pernamed Dennis Garey, arrived in this city petrated the deed, had skipped out to eson a tramp from Onincy.

stopped at the McRorey House, and as time reporter started out in search of the facts fled and board bills accumulated Rose put and ascertained that the report was only up his overcoat as security with his land. too true.

man, and bagan the work. Yesterday is his periodical custom, and got on a the saloon and locked his place up after Rose went to him and told him that he did spree, which lasted until Thursday they got outside. not have money enough to pay his hands, evening, when he returned home.

ately wicked.

THE OUTLAW'S VICTIM.

Rande's Fiendish Wish Fulfilled in the Death of White.

The fiendish wish of the outlaw is gratified. Officer John S. White, whom he shot during the terrible encounter at Wright's pawnshop last Friday morning, died at ten minutes before eight o'clock last night. White's recovery was considered very doubtful from the start, but the longer he lived the more hope there seemed for his recovery. His wound was in the right leg, about four inches above the knee, the femoral or before surgical attendance could be procur. ed for him, and it was on account of the great loss of blood he suffered that his life was despaired of all that day and the following night. Saturday morning his condition was about the same as it had been from the time of the shooting, and because it was not wome his friends began to entertain hopes of his ultimate recovery. Inflamation of the bowels set in vesterday. however, and this, of course, aggravated his given the patient, and strength and vitality was what he needed most of all. Dr. Hill, who was called to the pawnshop directly after the bleading, and but for whose prompt action the officer would have bled to death right there, continued as his regular doctor, but Drs. Hodgen and Gregory and several other doctors were consulted from time to

BLED NEARLY TO DEATH

THE GREATENT DANGER

was from mortification, but as Saturday appearing, the doctors entertained stronger afternoon, however, the dreaded signs of mortification appeared and preparations his consent, but upon being advised by Officer McFarland, his brother-in-law, he told the doctor that they could do with him are members of a gang of horse thieves | When the father discovered what had as they thought best. HIS WIFE AND BABE them good-bye. Then be took leave of the river. others in the room, after which all were amputating, while Dr. Hill held his thumb ness so far as his ferry is concerned. against the artery.

VERY LITTLE BLOOD WAS LOST.

hand of death upon him then, and that he state warrant. had made up his mind and has not afraid. Mr. Boyle remarked that he had acted his part well, when White remarked that he when of the family from the adjoining

"Do you think so?" he asked.
"You," said Boyle, "you are certainly dying; good-by."
White took him by the hand and as he

IN COLD BLOOD.

Joseph Melson Fatally Shoots Smith Stephens.

St. Joe Herald: About half past one its petals and left the town last night. Its o'clock yesterday afternoon, intelligence fragrance remains, however, and lingers was received in the city that a fatal shooting affray had transpired at Lake About three weeks ago a man named A. Contrary, five miles south of town, shortly cape the justice that would most certainly Of course, they were hunting work, and overtake him should he remain. A Herald

A mechanic loaned Rose some tools, and mile south of the Lake House, is located a wright. He subsequently accertained that A mechanic loaned how some toom, and then he was ready to enter business as a saw mill which is owned and operated by they were, however, and returned to follow contractor and builder. He could build swope & Boose. In their employ have contractor and builder. He could build swope & Boose. In their employ have them up.

In the meantime they had got a drink at swoman, woman! You are an angel."

When the could build the subsequently accertained that they were, however, and returned to follow they were they were, however, and returned to follow they were th and its a matter of great regret and a public name, the other Joseph Melson. The Sullivan's saloon, and afterward went to disseter that he didn't remain long enough former is a man about thirty-three years of Mike Murphy's saloon for more to secure a contract to erect a court house age, who has always borne the reputation Murphy, seeing they had enough -an edifice which, by the way, we greatly of a quiet, sober, industrious gentleman. refused to let them have anything The latter is, perhaps, forty years of age more to drink. They then became riotous Last week Bose secured a contract to and bears a hard name. Melson came to and were going to clean out the saloon, but eract a house in Darkeytown for a colored St. Joseph the early part of the week, as it Murphy succeeded in ejecting them from

and his sable employer advanced him the Yesterday he was perfectly sober and re- for more liquor. Gray finally came upon necessary sum. In the evening, Rose, who turned to his duty. About noon he en- them, and seeing that they were disturbing appears to be quite "a society man," asked tered the mill with a double-barrelled shot- the peace he told them that they had gone his landlord for the loan of his coat to gun in his hand. Walking to the back por- far enough and would have to accompany attend church, and the request was granted. tion of the mill, and when within twenty-He and his friend then disappeared into the five feet of his fellow-workmen, Stephens, them, but he revisted and tore a picket off darkness that sat all around the four sides he, without saying a word, took deliberate the fence behind him to strike the officer. of the McRorey House, and neither of them aim and fired, the entire charge entering Gray at last succeeded in wrenching the the left side of the abdomen. Stephens fell picket from him, but in the struggle A fellow mechanic who is out two or prostrate to the ground, as if killed inthree dollars is convinced that there is no stantly, while Melson took to his heels and ties seized this and broke it to pieces, swearrose without its thorn. Mr. Humphreys skipped out. Stephens was taken in charge ing "no d-d policeman" could arrest them. has been defrauded out of a board bill, and by the parties at the mill and kindly cared The officer then drew his revolver and the overcoat which was pledged for secu- for, while Mr. Swope proceeded at once for rity. Verily the heart of man is deeper. St. Joseph, to have a warrant issued for as he was outnumbered and was loth to use sullen and moroee and refused to feited. say anything in regard to the horrible af- The officer st stee that the men were fire- three thousand, which were issued to fair, having been cautioned, as he said, by men on the M., K. & T., but he did not his attorney, O. M. Spencer, not to make have all their names. any statement. He is a large, raw-boned main artery of the leg being entirely severed. wards give himself up for fear of being overtaken and captured.

the jail and gave himself up.

HORSE THIEF SHOT.

An Evening Tragedy on a Missouri River Flatboat Ferry.

Kansas City Times: An exciting little battle occurred soon after dark on Friday evening at Liberty Landing, about twelve case. Very little nourishment could be flatboat used for transporting people over urday which created considerable excitethe Missouri river. He was in his house on ment and scandal. had riden out upon this, but were pre- and riches entitled her. were immediately made for amputating the ed certain questions. These questions plans of fond tathers are often futile, and limb. Amputation of the limb might save were not to their liking, and when that the person most interested frequently the poor man's life, or it might hasten his they were informed that none but honest uses her own sweet will. And it was so in death, but as he would certainly die within men could cross the ferry at that time of this case. The fair one had bestowed her three or four hours unless the leg were cut night, and that a sheriff's posse was on the affections upon a "poor but honest young off, there was but one course to be taken. Jackson county side of the river, they man" and she determined to have him at Dr. Hill was already there, and Dr. started to ride away. As they rode off they all hazards. It is unnecessary to say that Hodgen was summoned without delay. The remarked that no sheriff or posse could the young men coincided in her resolution discovery of the gangrene was made about take them, and followed this up by firing by a big majority, and he was equally defive o'clock, and half an hour afterwards their pistols at the men in the ferryboat. termined she should be his. the dectors were getting ready for their On this the ferry men opened fire in return. The old man's permission was not to be unpleasant work. Dr. Hodgen stated the and as the horsemem had to ride round a thought of, so an elopement was planned case plainly to the patient. "It is only a curve on the bar, and the sand was so soft and successfully put into execution. She matter of a few hours," he said to White, that the horses could not travel fast, the escaped from the parental mansion, with "if your leg is not amputated, and we may ferry men had the advantage. The horse- her lover, and an accommodating justice of possibly save your life by its amputation." men dismounted, left their horses and ran the peace soon made the fugitives one flesh The patient at first heatated about giving off. One of them was found dead not far this being accomplished, the new made distant from the scene of the battle. The husband took his bride to his humble other escaped. It is supposed that they home.

excluded except Captain Burgess, Officer boys crossed the Chicago detective they had sought forgiveness. Her father, however, West which, she is proud to know, he Toomey, Mr. Kent Boyle and the doctors captured some two or three years ago, and euraged beyond control, assaulted the bride calls home. A farmer's hoy -he was The chloroform was administered and as whose body was found next morning not and tore the clothes from her person and cared for by a kind mother who has soon as the patient was well under the in- far from the ferry. It has been a favorite carried them off with him, leaving her in gone to her reward across the river, facence of the opiate, the amoutation was crossing for horse thieves in days gone by, puris naturalibus—or, in other words, stark and an example of industry, honor and companied. The operation lasted but a but it will not be so popular henceforth. naked. minute and a half, Dr. Hodgen doing the Mr. Clark intends to put a stop to the busi- The old man chuckled to himself as he to-day, is a house-hold word in the

At 7 o'clock he remarked to Officer Larry Some time ago a colored woman named up nicely in housekeeping with new furni-Toomer, who was attending him, that he Meyers left her house, in Darkeytown, and ture, etc., bought a large stock of pro- C. Prewitt, of Clarksville. She is ned he would be dead when he returned. went to Kansas City to work. When she visions, gave them a sum of money, and de-About the same time Father Glesson of St. returned she tound that Kate Green had parted happy. John's church, came in and gave absolution. cleaned her out of house and home, having And now the young couple are as joyc After the departure of the priest he had a sold her furniture, broke open and robbed conversation with Kent Boyle, clerk at her trunks of clothing, etc. Among the St. Luke's Hospital, and an old friend of items appropriated by the thieving Kate his, in which he said that he would die be- was a dress that cost thirty dollars. The fore morning. He said that he felt the Myers woman lit out for vengeance and s

A Nuisance.

Our boys have just received a new installhoped every one thought so, and said that ment of India rubber slings, and window it was a composition to know that he died breaking will be right lively. On Saturday evening a large light of Not long afterwards Mr. Boyle felt the Porter's Central Block, was perforated disturbing the peace, fighting, gambling, wounded man's pulse and discovered that by one of these contrivances, the missile go- or breaking the laws. His ridden ing clear through it, leaving a small round would be a public blessing, and ought to be "love in a cottage," which has been puncture. A light of glass was also broken effected by some means. Yesterday he told o'er and o'er again and will conin Hackett's building in the same manner went to Peggy White's house, mear the gar The use of these abominations should be house, and created a disturbance. She forbidden by law. -A great many remedies are advertised to bring them before the public but the latter decides whether they are good or bad. "good-bye, Kent," he closed his eyes The good reputation which Dr. Bull's expired. He died very easily. Mr.

A TOUGH CROWD

Was That Gray Collared Last Hight.

About eight o'clock last night, M Boatwright met Officer Gray, who is or duty in East Sedalia, and told him that a party of drun en men had committed an unprovoked smault upon his son, near the foundry. The officer went in that direction, and while on Lie way met a party of three men who were intoxicated.

Gray told them they had better go home and keep off the street, as he was not certain that they were the parties who had On Lake Contrary, and about a half a committed the assault upon young Boat-

Then they went back to Sullivan's place ordered some of the bystanders to assist him Melson's arrest. The warrant was issued his weapon, as it would have resulted in the by 'Squire Stewart, and Swope and Deputy killing of some of them. One man Sheriff Kelly started in pursuit of the mur- responded to his call for help, but he was derer. When they had been gone some quickly knocked down and driven off by had been the topic of conversation in two hours, Melson made his appearance at the two friends of the man Gray had hold of. almost every drawing-room in Central He is at present incarcerated at the jail he got to the foundry, where he was out finally culminated in the marriage of where he was visited by a Herald reporter numbered and overpowered. He secured a Mr. Gentry, of Sedalia, and Miss last evening, who offered him a chance to watch, however, for the man's appearance Prewitt, of Clarksville. Nothing was hood. 25 cents per bottle.

STARK NAKED

Did an Enraged Parent Strip His Runsway Daughter.

A gentleman who arrived in Sedalia this miles below this city. The ferry keeper, J morning direct from Joplin, relates an in-A. Clark, had tied up his boat, which is a cident that occurred near there last Sat-

the Jackson county side just about dark. In the town of Oronoco, about eight miles when two homemen appeared on the Clay from Joplin, there dwells a stern old gentlecounty shore and hailed him, desiring to man who is well off in this world's goods, cross over. Mr. Clark, with two men well ank has a very satisfactory bank account. armed, crossed over the Missouri in response | But his most inestimable treasure was a to the summons. He had been notified of blooming, buxom daughter, handsome and some horse thieving depredations on the accomplished, and who was as dear to him north side of the river, and was suspicious as the apple of his eye. Being wealthy and of those who might attempt to cross, influential, he had high hopes for her who For this reason both Clark and his assist- would eventually fall heir to his possessions night passed without any sign of gangrene ants were well armed. The place where and he planned a connubial alliance that the ferryboat lands is near to a sand bar would give his cherished idol that position, hopes than ever of his recovery. Yesterday projecting out into the river; the homemen in society to which he thought her merits vented from embarking before they answer- But it is a notorious fact that such operating in Ray, Platte and Clay counties, happened he was frantic with rage. He sad- is too well and favorably known in and fired on the ferrymen in mere bravado dled a horse and rode in hot haste to the Pettis county to even need an introwere brought into the room and he bade and spite because they could not cross the dwelling of the bride and groom, which he duction to the readers of the BAZOO. unceremoniously entered, and there before He was reared from birth within sight It was at this ferryboat that the James him he beheld his truant daughter, who be of the beautiful Queen City of the new reached home with his complete outfit of farm-houses of the great commonfemale toggery, but after his passion had wealth of Missouri. Mr. Gentry, the -When your baby is restless while teeth- subsided he began to feel ashamed of him, groom, was educated at Washington only an ounce or two, and the amputation was made without accident. The patient rallied soon after the operation and said that he did not feel it at all.

Only an ounce or two, and the amputation will relieve the little sufferer at once. Only 25 cents a bottle.

Subsided he began to feel ashamed of him, self. Being naturally a good-hearted man, he resolved to make amends for his brutal conduct. So he went over to the young conduct. So he went over to the young that he did not feel it at all.

Cleaned Out

as "two mice in a meal barrel."

-Nobody would go to church, or pr lic meeting, backing away and disturbi the prescher or orator with their cough. lege, at Columbia, Mo., with high Use Dr Bull's Cough Syrup at once; it honors. Subsequently she spent some only costs 25 cents. That John Turiey.

Is the greatest animated black ani glam in He is everlastingly at war with somebody. wore out a warrant for his arrest this morning. A public whipping post would be the proper thing for these non -Yesterday I had such a had cold that one passenger coach, No. 36, one bag- other's happiness, winding up by I could not speak. I used Dr. Bull's Cough gage car and locomotive stoud on the paying:

HAPLY HEARTS.

GENTRY-PREWITT.

The Wedding at Clarksville, Nov. 20-The High Contracting Parties -The Place and the Parents-The Service at the Church-Who were There and What they Wore -Toilets of the Bride and Bridesmaids-Other Toilets-Presents-The Tour to the South.

Artemas Ward, the noted humorist once wrote as follows:

"A female woman is one of the gre est instituotions the land can be HOW IT HAPPENED.

It is but a few short months since R. T. Gentry, who played such a conpicuous part in life's drama on Tuesday evening last, arrived at the same nelusions as did Mr. Ward, whom the B. 200 has quoted above, but, dear was once firmly fastened in Dick's mind he became unmanageable and from that moment he was a high

A country villa not far from Clarks- the sharpened appetites of the party element. ville. Pike county, Mo., on the banks were appeared by a splendid collation the center of the world to him. The sun got up there.

The moon and stars all shone with resplendent beauty from that place. And-and the young man was smit

RUMORS RIFE.

For many weeks past society people have been in a flutter of excitement at the announced engagement which had been whispered in the upper circles The affair which transpired Tuesday Gray struggled on with his prisoner until Missouri for several weeks past which make a statement, which might, perhaps, be before the Recorder this morning. The known definitely of the time, until in vindication of himself. He appeared man did not appear and the watch was for- about ten days ago, when the following invitations, to the great number of the members of the elite of the respective localities in which the parties resided and to their friends in all parts ardice to commit the deed he did, and after- Baby Syrup pronounce it the hest medicine ory of many readers of the BAZOO in the heart of Sedalia society as that occasioned by the nuptials on Tuesday. The following are the cards, of steel at the marriage of their daughter

MATTIE.

Tuesday eve. Nov. 20, 1877,

At the Christian Church.

at seven o'clock.

RICHARD T. GENTRY.

MATTIE C. PREWITT.

RECEPTION

Tuesday Evening, Nov. 20, 1877.

at 8:30 o'elock.

fidelity set by a father whose name.

MATTIE C. PREWITT.

The bride is the daughter of William young lady of more than ordinary at culture and society could bestow upon with her best gifts. Miss Prewitt weeks visiting her class-mate, Miss Mary V. Gentry, of Pettis, cousin of the groom. It was at Christian College, while visiting his cousin, that Mr. Gentry first met Miss Prewitt, and gentle reader, it was that same old story that he whispered into hereer of tinue to be told as long as the world stands and woman is given in mar-

THE TRIP TO CLARESVILLE.

CLARKSVILLE, Mo.

MISSOURI.

MISSOURI.

CLARKSVILLE.

SEDALIA.

dressed, and in carriages provided they you." It was all he could say. plate engraving, on cream-tinted paper. were driven to the church. From the sidewalk leading to the MR. & MRS. W. C. PREWITT request your presence feel at home.

CHURCH AND DECORATIONS.

nearly two hundred miles away :

away in the distance.

the rain falling steadily.

The train got there.

only a few steps away.

his bride.

MOONDAY REPART.

The Christian Church at Clarksville, where the ceremony was performed, is an unpretentious building, plain in every respect. The auditory, which will not seat to exceed three hundred persons, was decorated at the pulpit with house plants in a semi-circle in pyrimidial shape—the pulpit desk forming a portion of the semi-circle. Behind the pulpit desk was an English ivy-green, twined around a lattice ten or twelve feet high.

MARRIAGE BELL. About six feet in front of the chancel was suspended from the wall a huge marriage bell, under which the bride and groom stood when the ceremony was pronounced. The bell was eight or ten feet in circumference at the outer edge of the flange. It was composed of living green, spotted with tube roses.

THE AUDIENCE was not large, owing to the inclement weather, but the house was comfortably filled, J. W. Hemphill and Dr. W. W. Burkhead, of Clarksville, acting as ushers.

BRIDAL PARTY. At quarter past 7 o'clock, Rev. J. K. Rogers, President of Christian College at Columbia, entered the church and took a seat in the semi-circle of the decorations. As he removed a loose overcoat he exhibited a dress of black with white vest, white gloves and necktie. He is a tall man with sharp features, moustache and imperial.

He moved uneasily in his chair and looked as if he was waiting for somebody to say "go ahead."

The monotony was relieved by the organ pealing forth appropriate music at which sat Miss Lou Bell, of Louisat which sat Miss Lou Bell, of Louisiana, during which time Major Gentry and wife and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Prewitt were conducted in and shown seats nearly in front, in the body of the church.

forks and spoons.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cloney, four fine oil paintings
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Offield, silver swinging pitcher with tray, goblets and bowl.

Misses Bettie and Mary Gentry, combination silver fruit and flower stand, richly carved.

Miss Josse Moore, beautiful oil painting executed by hersell.

Miss Lizzie R. Allen, silver card receiver, gold in

At half-past seven the bridal party made their appearance, headed by T. F. Gregg, of St. Louis, escorting Miss! Annie Teague, of Clarksville, who took position on the right of the altar. took position on the right of the altar.

Next was J. B. Gentry, escorting Miss Laura S. Mellon, of St. Louis, filing to the left of the altar, taking positions opposite the first couple. Mr. C. W.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Mead, Sedalia, Mo., solid silver fish knife.

"Little Nuggie," pair silver vases.

"Littl Bullen and Miss Josie Moore, of Sedalia: Miller Bullard and Miss Mary V. Gentry, of Sedalla; C. P. Brown and Miss Allen, of St. Louis, and J. tractions-educated, refined and accom-H. Bothwell and Miss Bettie Gentry, plished in all the modern graces that of Sedalia, taking alternate positions on either side of the altar. Then came a mind that nature has richly endowed the bride and groom with slow and measured step up the aisle, taking po graduated last June, at Christian Colsition immediately in front of

THE CEREMONY.

Every noise was hushed and the off. ciating clergyman proceeded in accordance with the usages of the Christian church, to join the two before him in marriage, and in reply to his interrogatories they both articulated "I do." firmly and earnestly.

The ceremony was very pretty and was what is known as the "ring service." He then pronounced them husband and wife. A short prayer followed, after which the clergyman referred them to the Word of God for On the morning of the 20th inst., at their duty to each other, and their 6 o'clock, a special train consisting of chief aim should be to promote each ready to start on a trip to Clarksville, not man put sounder.

to witness the nuptiels as announced. While the bridal party-filed sugar grate silk. The lower sairt was of You're learned full well from Wiedom's love no

Conductor W. A. McClarren, Jake ful melody. Miller, the trusted Engineer, pulled out in the gray dawn of the morning. with the following named persons, who were shown into carriages and driven clematis—cut high in the throat and Joy guard you; when the wine goes round and had bright anticipations of the eveover a beautiful macadamized road for ornamented with a necklace of the we'll drink that Life may "cash all checks" for same flowers—sleeves cut demi, finished was given at half past eight. Major A. B. Garner and wife, Col. A. D. Jaynes and wife, Maj. Wm.

Gentry and wife, Mrs. T. W. Cloney, Mentor Thomson and wife, John L.
Hall and wife, Col. Jno. F. Philips and wife, Rev. F. W. Graham, Gen. Geo.
R. Smith, Joshua Gentry, Marshall P.
Wright, of Clinton, Lum Hall and one maple trees. The house is of the old or two others, including a representa-tive of the Bazoo. south-large rooms, high ceiling, huge The crisp air of a November morning grates, &c. Everything about the

The prairie country was soon in view Mr. Prewitt, father of the bride, is a and Sedalia, the Queen of the New Kentuckian. He emigrated to Mis- with passamentric and deep fringe. West, faded behind us. Beaman, souri in 1829, when the State was al-Pleasant Green and Pilot Grove were most a howling wilderness and a passed without stopping, and the as- boundless prairie waste. He has all cesse, trimmed handsomely with veltonished villagers peered out of their his life, and is still following the occu- vet of same shade. The skirt of plumhalf open doors only to see a puff of pation of a farmer, yet he dabbles in colored silk made princesse—with Ornaments, diamonds. reader, when the above true sentiment steam and a streak of smoke as the speculation of all kinds where an honest basque. rumbling noise of the flying train died penny can be turned. Although well Black silk dress, made princesse up moisture and the rain fell in tor-Mrs. Prewitt, mother of the bride. looks as if she was on the summer side of fifty years, although a few silver and after some little delay, the train threads course through her hair. She road, and down the west bank of the true type of a Kentucky lady.

> As the hour of fwelve approached Mr. Prewitt's farm is situated near time the clouds gave vent to their pent | that section of the State.

tally learned that she was married at

CONGRATULATIONS.

At 5:30 p. m., the train whistled for It was here Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Clarksville, and soon the platform of received congratulations of their friends the depot was gained when we were until near eleven o'clock. All day and met by friends who, with umbrellas, away into the night telegrams from were ready to transfer the party to the friends from Washington, New York. Carroll House, a finely appointed hotel St. Louis Texas and many other places showered in upon them, sending re-At the hotel the proprietor and his grets and congratulations. Happy day, unpleasant night, bu fortable-showing them all the atten- The aged and infirm grandfather of the back. Hair in frizzes. Ornaments tain road for Galveston and possibly tion that was necessary to make them the bride mingled tears with smiles as -diamonds. he told them sobbingly, "May God in After a hasty supper, the ladies his infinite mercy bless and prosper P. Brown, of St. Louis.

THE WEDDING SUPPER. was formed thus:

and about fifty to seventy-five could be accommodated at one time.

those who partook of it. In a room off from the main hall of were displayed the

From Wm. C. Prewitt, father of bride-ten thouand dollars.

Mrs. Wm. C. Prewitt, elegant diamond set,
R. T. Gentry, exquisite set of pearls.

Major Wm Gentry, elegant French gilt clock.

The groomamen, complete silver dinner and Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Shelton, handsome morocco case, containing complete set solid silver knives, forks and spoons.

Bieher Bros., large, ornamented pyramic J.T. Lindsey, panel picture on glass. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Kidd, silver card rece R. C. Sneed, silver bouquet holder. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hall, silver and erry bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Mentor Thomson, silver and glas THE RETURN.

After midnight the Sedalia party returned to the city and took their rooms and beds at the Carroll House. At an early hour the next morning they were aroused, and after a hasty breakfast boarded the special train bound for home, arriving in Sedalia at 5:30 p. m., Wednesday evening, from one of the most enjoyable trips that ever Sedaliane participated in. In behalf of Major and Mrs. Gentry and those who accompanied the party to Clarksville, the Bazoo returns tuanks for the very great courtesies extended and the assidious attentions of Messre Garage and Jaynes to make And wish-well, a'maporte, old boy, you must "bre the party to feel at home. THE BRIDE'S TOLLET.

The bride is a tall brunette, vivacious, with a pleasant face and dark, Tie all chalked out-a few Boyle, was held his head, said that he did Baby Syrup enjoys is a stending guarantee Syrup, and to-day I am as well as over. It track in front of the Garrison House "What man hath joined togther let sparkling eye. She was dressed in a soil real it more, and to day I am as well as over. It track in front of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the contract of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the contract of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the cost of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the cost of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the cost of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the cost of the Garrison House only cost me to contract the cost of the Garrison House only cost me to cost of the Garrison House only cost me to cost of the Garrison House only cost me to cost of the Garrison House only cost me to cost of the Garrison House only cost me to cost of the Garrison House only cost of the very elegant creamy brecade and gros- But as the King of one

When "all aboard" was called by seated and the organ furnishing a cheer- silk and lisse. The princesse court garniture of lisse, decorated with a To build again an Eden bower-to make of earth The bridal party and invited guests profusion of orange blossoms and bride's parents, where the reception with lisse and boquets.

TRAVELING DRESS.

Brown silk, made en train, Knicker- black silk trimmed in Valenciennes bocker with polonaise finished em- lace. Hair in high coil—coral jewelry. broidered bands, smoke pearl buttons with deep sash of brown silk—Hat of bride in black velvet and silk. Cameo brown felt with wings and velvet to jewelry. be in harmony.

Black silk, made princesse with

Velvet and matalasse ornamented

Polonaise of brown silk, made prin-advanced in years he continues in the trimmed elegantly with velvet, vanactive pursuits of business, without dyked, ordamented with bows of same and lace overdress trimmed with carwhich he would be out of his natural and fringe finished with lisse pleatings dinal flowers. Diamonds. at neck and sleeves.

The outfit was made by Madame of the great Father of Waters, was that was served on "No. 36." At this Clarksville, and is one of the finest in Robins, at 2322 Pine street, St. Louis. TOILET FIRST BRIDESMAID.

> M'ss Bettie Gentry, sister of the groom, was first bridesmaid. She is a brunette and was dressed in cream silk bodice, the square neck, back and med with blue silk. Diamonds. was switched to the track of the St. is of fine, matronly appearance, cour- front filled in with fine pleatings of Louis, Keokuk and Northwestern Rail- teous to everybody, hospitable, and a illusion, ornamented with clusters of white flowers-short sleeves, composed tasty. Diamonds. Mississippi river we went, all the time The Bazoo representative inciden- of illusion and flowers. Skirt cut princesse, of white tarleton, elaborately At Louisiana another delay was ex- "sweet sixteen" to Mr. Prewitt, since trimmed with fine pleatings and scarf ornaments. perienced, and the ladies became some- which time they have resided in Pike of same. A spray of white flowers what uneasy, fearing that they would county. They have only two children, extending diagonally across the ennot reach Clarksville in time to wit- the daughter who is now Mrs. Gentry tire front and over the train in the ness the nuptial ceremony of Dick and and a son—a lad of fourteen or fifteen back. Hair dressed in puffs, ornamented with white flowers. Diamond

> > Miss Gentry was attended by Mr. TOILET OF SECOND BRIDESMAID.

Miss Lizzie R. Allen, of St. Louis blonde, dressed in tarleton with satin bodice. The skirt was cut en train. profusely trimmed with knife pleatings and ruffles of the same. A everything to make their guests com- joy was unbounded in that household. flowers entwined the neck, fastened at groom will leave via the Iron Moun-

TOILET OF THIRD BRIDESMAID. Miss Mary V. Gentry, of Pettis coun-At eleven o'clock the dining room ty, cousin of the groom and a classchurch was built a temporary archway, was thrown open and the guests in- mate of the bride, was third bride covered with oilcloth, while the walk vited to partake of the choice viands maid. She is a blonde and was very was covered with a bright colored car- prepared for the occasion. The table tastily attired in white tarleton with a very ligh tint cream satin bodice— The child stopped growing forthwith sleeves demi pleatings finished with and its father is about to commence a lesse. Around the neck with ruching suit for damages. and jessamine. The skirt was white tarleton made en train, trimmed with knife pleatings and silk pipings. Hair in frizzes. Jewelry-diamond.

Miss Gentry was attended by Mr. M. Bullard, of Sedalia, superintendent of telegraph on the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

TOILET OF FOURTH BRIDESMAID. Miss Josie Moore, of Sedalia, was The mens comprised everything fourth bridesmaid. She is a very pretthat could please the eye or tempt the ty blonde, and was elegantly attired palate, prepared in the most exquisite in white tarleton with cream tinted manner and arranged with artistic silk bodice and demi sleeves with tarlskill. Substantials of all descriptions ton pleatings finished with crepe lisse, were in abundance, interspersed with ruching and white gros-grain bows sauces, relishes, etc. It was a sump- finished around the neck with ruching tuous board and regally furnished, the and a delicate garland of white jessakingdoms of fish, flesh and fowl hav- mine. The skirt is of tarleton, made ing been ransacked for the choicest with adjustable court train trimmed sacrifices. These were followed by with very fine knife pleatings and exquisitely prepared delicacies, beauti- satin pipings, also a garland of white fully moulded jellies, and marvels of lilies of the valley. Hair a la pompa-

Miss Laura S. Mellon, of St. Louis make her feel at home among strange the house was a large table on which -a blonde-small in stature, was exquisitely attired in silk bodice. The knife pleatings and gros-grain. The Bull's Cough Syrup is my family," is what hair was ata Grecian, surmounted we heard a lady say yesterday. Miss Melton was attended by Mr. J. B. Gentry, of Sedalia, brother of the

> TOILET OF SIXTH BRIDESMAID. Miss Annie Teague, of Clarksville, a brunette, dressed in white satin bodice and tarleton, made en train, and wore a white silk necktie and white gloves. His get up was of the best and reflected the well-chosen taste of Mr. Gentry and the skill of his tailor. THE GROOMSMEN were of the best young men of Sedalia and St. Louis. They were dressed in conventional black, with white vests neckties and gloves.

Friend Dick, for you dame For o'er your head, or—eadder still—the "s around your lonely bed the church, the audience remained gros-grain, trimmed with pleating of Than this; the fate which honest men accept train was composed of brocadesilk and The chance to win back Paradise, to all true lovers

OTHER TOILETS. Mrs. S. P. Griffith, of Bowling Green, Mo., was elegantly dressed in Mrs. W. C. Prewitt, mother of the

Mrs. Col. Jno. F. Philips, in lilac silk with point lace trimmings-jewelry, Etruscan gold. Mrs. Major A. B. Garner, black velvet underdress with blue silk polanaise -diamond ornamenta. Mrs. T. W. Cloney, sister of the groom-combination black silk and velvet trimmed with cardinal flowers.

Jewelry-diamonds. Mrs. Jno. L. Hall, in black velvet skirt and pearl colored silk overdress.

Mrs. Maj. Gentry, in plain black silk. Ornamenta Etruscan gold. Mrs. Theo, Shelton, black velvet

Mrs. A. D. Jaynes, black gros-grain cut en train. Diamonds Mrs. Ada Hemphill, of Clarksville, fawn colored silk. Roman gold ornaments. Miss Mollie McKay, Clarksville, black gros-grain, made en train, trim-Miss Jennie Mellon, St. Louis, combination suit, silk and velvet-very Mrs Mentor Thomson, in black silk. trimmed with black lace. Plain gold Mrs. Frank Boone, of Clarksville, in black and velvet. Jewelry, amethyst. Very tasty and pretty toilet.

THE TOUR SOUTH. The bridal party, which includes the bride, groom and the attendants, left Clarksville last night at 8:30, on the . H. Bothwell, an attorney of Sedalia. steamer War Eagle, where a string band furnished the music for dancing. They arrived in St. Louis this morning and are being entertained at the residence of Theo. Shelton, at 2116, Chestnut street.

New Orleans, returning via. Sherman, Miss Allen was attended by Mr. C. where they will be given a reception at Mr. J. M. Offield's, thence home, arriving in Sedalia about the 10th of December.

PERSONAL. -Jno. L. Hall has lost his reputation as a baby-charmer. He frightened a baby into a terrible fit-of crying while on the trip, by looking at it.

-The last seen of Lum Hall, of Sedalia, he was seated on the lackstaff of the steamer "War Eagle," as she swung from the landing at Clarksville, both hands and his mouth full of cake.

-The Bazoo representative is under obligations to Mr. Anderson, of the Clarksville Sentinel, for favors shown. He also desires to thank the proprietor of the Carroll House and his most ac--E. W. Githens, Agent of the St. Louis, Keokuk & Northwestern Railroad, at Clarksville, has placed the Bazoo under obligations to him

THEIR HOME. The large, two-story, square brick house at 202 east Fifth street, has been elegantly fitted and furnished by Mr. Gentry for a home for his bride. Sedalia is sociable and pleasant. Her people vie with each other to make strangers feel at home. This young lady-now Mrs. Gentry-has left home and kindred and henceforth will be one of the Queen City of the New West. Let our people show her that attention that is due a stranger and -"If I had to walk from here to Baltimore for it, I would not be without Dr.

A Tramp Who was Out of Mest.

little town of Mismi, on the Missouri

He Edward Mayfield, who owns a ment shop, near which he lives, heard a noise in his shop, as if somebody was breaking in. He gut a loaded double-barreled gun and procooled to investigate the came, going around to his shop by the back way. As he approached the rear door the stranger above mentioned came out of the shop, and seeing Mr. Mayfield approaching with a gun in his hands, he took to his heels. Mayfield fired and brought the fellow down. He was at once captured and found to be seriously wounded in the left arm, two shot also penetrated his left bresst, and two entered his body just below the rite.

On Sunday night be was taken to Marhall and placed in the county jail. He is very reticent, and will give no information about himself whatever. He gave his name, which our informant had forgetten, but it is undoubtedly a false one. His wounds are very serious, and may result in his death. He is a man apparently about thirty years of age, six feet ten mehes in height, dark complexion, and dark chin whishers.

-Willie, the little son of of Henry Dan iels, of Boose county, was badly scalded last week while his mother was lifting a pot of boiling water from the fire, the water drenching him from head to foot. He will not recover, it is thought.

the confectioner's and baker's art, to- dour, with diamond dust. Ornaments gether with the rich tropical produc- -diamonds. tions of Pomona, that filled the air Mrs. J. B. Hall, of Sedalia, is the with their fragrance and cloyed the artist on this toilet. palate with their flavors. It was a Miss Moore was attended by Mr. C. feast for an epicure, and one which W. Bullen, assistant cashier of the will linger long in the memories of Citizens' National Bank of Sedalia. TOILET OF FIFTH BRIDESMAID.

skirt of swiss muslin, made en train, elaborately trimmed with bows of with jessamine. Jewelry-diamonds.

A BURGLAR SHOT.

lined Misses Laura and Jenne Mellon, set Scott's poems, in leather.
Mrs. Gerrard B. Allen, solid silver cake stand.
Paschall Carr, solid silver butter dish.
Adam Ittel, silver cruet stand.
Master Prewitt, bride's brother, silver breakfast castor and napkin rings.
M. P. Wright, Chinton, Mo., silver toilet set.
C. C. Hall, baccarad glass and bronze swing toilet slass.

Miss Teague was attended by Mr.
T. F. Gregg, a prominent commission ing he made for the shore, and after step-